SUBJECT:

CIA Career Council Approval of

"The Career Staff of the Central Intelligence Agency"

25X1A

1. The CIA Career Council approved at its meeting on 15 May 1958 certain changes in policy and procedures relating to the CIA Career Staff and requested that [REDACTED] be revised to incorporate these changes and additions.

2. A draft of the revised version of the regulation was submitted for coordination on 17 July 1958 to the staffs of the Deputy Directors (Intelligence), (Plans), and (Support), General Counsel and Chief, Management Staff. Comments were received from these coordinating officials and the suggested changes, which were primarily editorial, were incorporated in the attached revised version.

25X1A

3. In the coordinating process some suggestions relative to major policy matters and procedures relative to strengthening the Career Staff concept were offered for consideration. These suggestions will be included in the discussions on the CIA Career Staff which are being planned for a Council meeting in the near future. It is, however, considered not desirable to suspend action at this time on matters which have been approved by all concerned. All the coordinating officials have concurred in the attached draft of [REDACTED] (Revised) and the procedures specified by the Council have been fulfilled.

4. Please signify your approval or disapproval below and return to the undersigned by 3 October 1958.
